

MAR 25 1960

Approved For Release 2005/01/27 : CIA-RDP75-00149R000700450011-7

Page 2
S. Symington
X - Ag 2-1

SYMINGTON—

On one specific issue, Symington said that he did not think the Asian offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu had any military value and that if free-world forces could be withdrawn "on any proper basis, I'd be glad to get out of them." This is almost identical with Kennedy's position.